

Be Proud, Get Involved: The Importance of Active Participation in Industry Regulation

In today's rapidly evolving industry landscape, the role of professionals extends beyond their daily responsibilities. Being an active participant in industry regulation and giving back through participation on an industry council not only strengthens our industry but also fosters a sense of pride and accomplishment. Here's why you should consider getting involved and how you can make a difference.

Why Your Participation Matters

1. Shaping the Future: By participating in industry regulation, you have the opportunity to influence policies and standards that govern our field. Your insights and expertise can help shape a more robust and forward-thinking industry.
2. Professional Growth: Engaging in regulatory activities and council work provides unique opportunities for professional development. You'll gain new perspectives, enhance your leadership skills, and expand your professional network.
3. Giving Back: Participating on an industry council is a powerful way to give back to the industry that supports your career. It's a chance to mentor the next generation, share your knowledge, and contribute to the collective success of your peers.

How to Get Involved

Apply to Join an Industry Council: The ABCs has detailed information available on their website at Province of Manitoba | Agencies, Boards and Commissions \(gov.mb.ca\) that can assist you in applying to join an industry council. Specific information on the Insurance Council, under the Minister of Finance, can be found on the ABCs website here.

Be Proud of Your Contributions

Every contribution, no matter how small, plays a crucial role in advancing our industry. By actively participating on an industry council, you are not only enhancing your own career but also paving the way for future generations. Be proud of what you do and the impact you can make.

Call to Action

We encourage all professionals to take the initiative and get involved. Your participation is vital to the continued growth and success of our industry. Together, we can achieve great things.
